

WEEKEND POST

SATURDAY TV

FILM GUIDE

Clint Eastwood is Dirty Harry in The Enforcer (HTV, 10.15).

Song Without End (C4, 2.25): Dirk Bogarde plays a young Franz Liszt, the brilliant pianist and composer, who goes on a tour of Europe and meets a Russian princess, played by Capucine. (1960).

Second Chance (BBC-2, 3.10): Mexico is the setting for this uncomplicated thriller starring Robert Mitchum and Linda Darnell, who are both trying to rebuild their lives. A vengeful Jack Palance turns up with a gun. (1953).

Cutting It Short (BBC-2, 9.25): A Czech film with subtitles. Entertaining combination of slapstick and romance all set in a small-town brewery in the twenties. (1980).

Patton—Lust For Glory (BBC-1, 8.55): Exceptional drama about one of the most controversial military leaders of World War II. (1969).

The Enforcer (HTV, 10.15): Clint Eastwood returns as San Francisco cop "Dirty Harry" Callahan. He is slightly puzzled about his new partner being a woman. (1976).

Fog Over Frisco (C4, 10.30): Fast thriller with Bette Davis landing her sister in big trouble with the Mob. (1934, B/W).

Devil's Island (C4, 11.50): Excellent performance from Boris Karloff as a brain surgeon wrongly imprisoned on the island.
